RE: Brunson v. Alma S. Adams et al - Case No.: 22-380 (Certified #7022 0410 0000 3918 6038 - 1 of 3)

Dear Justices:

This letter/affidavit is to express my support of the above referenced case, in reference to your recent decision to deny hearing the case, because I am concerned the United States has experienced a national security breach.

Bouvier's 1856 Law Dictionary – accepted by four Acts of Congress – serving as commentary on Constitutional law, under the definition of “misprision” states a purpose of this Affidavit: “4. It is the duty of every good citizen, knowing of a treason or felony having been committed; to inform a magistrate. Silently to observe the commission of a felony, without using any endeavors to apprehend the offender, is a misprision.” 1 Russ.on Cr. 43; Hawk. P. C. c. 59, s. 6; Id. Book 1, c. s. 1; 4 Bl. Com. 119.

There is ample evidence presented to SCOTUS to show that Brunson's claims have plausible merit. 388 elected officials collectively conspired to violate their oaths of office and you are hereby notified of this potential felony and treason by this undersigned “good citizen.”

The Department of Homeland Security has a national campaign to raise public awareness of the signs of terrorism and terrorism-related crimes called, “If you see something, say something.” This current case before SCOTUS leaves a most important question before the court, “What good does it do, if no one responds?”

“I, ___, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God.”

I ask that you stand against the invasion and influence of foreign and domestic enemies, and uphold the Supreme Law of the Land by granting the petition. You truly are in a position that the world has ever seen before and I pray for you and your just ruling upholding the Constitution of the United States.

Sincerely,
