RE: Brunson v. Alma S. Adams et al - Case No.: 22-1028
Affidavit - Notice of Misprision & Declaration of War

This Affidavit is, again, Notice in the above referenced case because I am concerned this court is making decisions that constitute a national security breach. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C Section 1746, I make the following declaration:

Bouvier's 1856 Law Dictionary – accepted by four Acts of Congress – serving as commentary on Constitutional law, under the definition of “misprision” states a purpose of this Affidavit: “4. It is the duty of every good citizen, knowing of a treason or felony having been committed; to inform a magistrate. Silently to observe the commission of a felony, without using any endeavors to apprehend the offender, is a misprision.” 1 Russ.on Cr. 43; Hawk. P. C. c. 59, s. 6; Id. Book 1, c. s. 1; 4 Bl. Com. 119.

There has been ample evidence in the information presented to this court to show that the Defendant's claims have plausible merit. You are hereby notified of this potential felony and treason by this undersigned “good citizen.”

Oath of Office Violations

A prerequisite of an attorney's license is an inviolable promise that they will always support and defend the Constitution in all situations.

Every lawyer in the country must be sworn in and take their state's oath of attorney. This ceremony may seem traditional and mundane, but it has never been more important. This oath binds each attorney to certain professional obligations and requires us, as lawyers, to faithfully uphold and support the laws of our state and our country.

[Faint, illegible text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

The words in that oath are a mandate to all attorneys that they practice with professionalism, integrity, and respect. Each state's oath varies in its wording, but they all require of us the same three duties:

1. to support the Constitution of the United States,
2. to faithfully discharge the duties of an attorney, and
3. to conduct oneself with integrity and civility.

As officers of the courts, lawyers are sworn to support the Constitution not just of the state in which they seek to practice, but above all, to support the Constitution of the United States. This promise is included first in every state's attorney oath, and it is the most important promise that a new attorney will make. It commands an attorney to take action to ensure the supreme law of the land is followed and upheld. This promise is a burden on all lawyers—every lawyer must defend the US Constitution, in all ways, at all times. – American Bar Association

“Any judge who does not comply with his/her oath to the United States wars against that Constitution and engages in acts in violation of the supreme law of the land. The judge is engaged in acts of treason.” Cooper v. Aaron, 358 U.S. 1, 78 S. Ct. 1401 (1958)

The public corruption (treasonous violations of the oath of office) discussed herein may well fall under The RICO Act, which focuses specifically on racketeering, and it allows the leaders of a syndicate to be tried for crimes, which order others to do or assisted them in doing, closing a perceived loophole that allowed a person who instructed someone else to, for example, murder, to be exempt from the trial because they did not actually commit the crime personally.

Therefore, it is incumbent upon you, as officers of the Court and Servants of We the People, to bring this out into the light of day and expeditiously restore law and order to the nation.

The violation of one's oath of office is an act of treason and anyone having knowledge of the commission of treason, who conceals or does not, as soon as possible, disclose and make known the same is guilty of misprision of treason.

18 U.S. Code § 2381 – Treason: Whoever, owing allegiance to the United States, levies war against them or adheres to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort within the United States or elsewhere, is guilty of treason and shall suffer death, or shall be imprisoned not less than five years and fined under this title but not less than $10,000; and shall be incapable of holding office under the United States.

I, once again, ask that you stand against the invasion and influence of foreign and domestic enemies, and uphold the Supreme Law of the Land by granting the Brunson petition. Your Oath of Office demands it and I pray that you will honorably upholding the Constitution of the United States.

Sincerely,
